Westward Through the Rockies.

The traveler, tourist or business man is wise when he selects the Rio Grande Western Railway "Great Salt Lake Route" for his route to the Pacific Coast. It is the only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City, and in addition to the glimpse it affords of the Temple City, the Great Salt Lake and picturesque Salt Lake and Utah Valley, it affords the choice of three distinct routes through the mountains and the most magnificent scenery in the world.

On all Pacific Coast tourist tickets, stopovers are granted at Denver Colorado Springs, Manitou, Leadville, Glenwood Springs, Salt Lake City, Ogden and other points of interest. Double daily train service and through Pullman and Tourist sleeping cars between Denver and San Francisco and Los Angeles.

For illustrated pamphlets descriptive of the "Great Salt Lake Route," write L. B. EVELAND, Traveling Passenger Agent, 305 West Ninth street, Kansas City, or F. A. WADSWORTH, General Passenger Agent Salt Lake City.

THE WORLD AT LARGE.

Summary of the Daily News.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE WILSON returned to Washington on the 7th from an extended tour of the Trans-mississippi states. He said he found the farmers in good spirits everywhere. Mr. Wilson predicted a still further advance in wheat prices, due to the short crop abroad and to the fact that the crop in this country will be short of anticipations.

UNCLE SAM'S secret service bureau is struggling with an epidemic of counterfeiters, mostly of the silver certificates of last year's issue. Hardly a day passes without the arrest of one to half a dozen persons detected in passing spurious notes or silver coin.

PENSION examiners in the field have received instructions from Washington to give out no information to the press in regard to their work.

The United States pension office on the 8th received a contribution of $350 from a pensioner in Pennsylvania, who said he had obtained the money fraudulently.

The coinage of silver dollars and minor coins, which was suspended at the various mints during July and August, will be resumed.

THE annual report of the auditor for the interior department shows that the amount paid for pensions during the last year was $140,477,637. The payments on pension account for the fiscal year of 1896 were $138,722,127, and for the fiscal year 1895, $140,558,641.

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE WILSON says the department will encourage the growing of the camphor tree in Florida, experiments having already proven successful. He predicts that the United States will soon produce all the camphor needed for use in this country.

FOURTH ASSISTANT POSTMASTER-GENERAL BRISTOW has made a ruling that postmasters, whether fourth-class or presidential, are entitled to but four years' service. This sets aside the ruling of Postmaster-General Bissell, that postmasters should serve four years from the date of confirmation. The new order will affect thousands of postmasters, and many appointments are expected to be made soon.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY sent a dispatch to Michigan City, Ind., pardoning Francis A. Coffin, who had been confined in the penitentiary there for wrecking the Indianapolis national bank. Coffin had served one year of an eight-year sentence.

Gov. BRADY, of Alaska, announces his determination to suppress the illegal traffic of liquor in that territory. To this end he will refuse clearance to vessels destined for Alaska ports having liquors on board, except such as are intended for medicinal and scientific purposes.

A FREIGHT train on the Iron Mountain railroad was wrecked at Hanson, I. T., on the 12th by the trucks of one of the cars breaking and seven men were killed and six others were badly injured. Fifteen cars loaded with walnut logs and baled hay were wrecked. The men killed and injured were all stealing a ride to Van Buren, Ark., to get employment in the cotton fields.

Two negroes, named Charley Gibson and Jim Smith, quarreled at Macon, Ga., on the 12th over 30 cents, when the former shot the latter and killed him. A sheriff's posse got after the latter and ran him down, wounding him in the exchange of shots, and while the sheriff was hunting for a vehicle to convey the wounded man to town, the negro confessed to having assaulted a woman and the mob immediately hanged the culprit.

AFTER a convention at Columbus, O., which lasted four days, the representatives of the miners of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Indiana and West Virginia adopted by a vote of 425 for to 319 against the operators' proposition for settling the strike on the basis of a 65-cent scale in the Pittsburgh field.

WHILE six troops of the colored Ninth cavalry, from Fort Robinson, were camped at Chadron, Neb., one of the negroes raided John Larkin's saloon at one o'clock in the morning, picked up a sack containing $300 in silver and though pursued by a crowd he managed to escape.

WITH reputation gone, and made desperate with shame, Miss Lula Cutchin, aged 22, of Suffolk, Va., took refuge in death. She belonged to a family of the highest respectability, and was a member of the M. E. church, in whose choir she was the leading soprano. She made a confession to her father in committing a prominent citizen of the town.

At least 25 persons were killed and most of the bodies burned in a collision shortly after midnight of the 9th 1/4 miles west of Newcastle, Col., due to the mistake of the conductor of an extra-coast train on the Colorado Midland railroad in reading the wrong column of figures. The westbound passenger and express train of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad was telescoped and all of the passenger cars except the rear Pullmans were burned.

A number of passengers who were not killed outright, but were pinned in the wreckage and could not be extricated, perished in the flames. There were about 200 passengers, fully one-fourth of whom were either killed or injured.

A TERRIBLE crisis was reached in the strike situation at Hazleton, Pa., on the 10th when a band of deputy sheriffs fired into a crowd of miners who were marching to Latimer. The miners fell like so many sheep and the excitement was so intense that no accurate figures of dead and wounded could be obtained. Reports run from 20 to 25 killed and 50 wounded. The men killed were all Hungarians.

THIRTEEN fatalities have occurred in the Joplin (Mo.) mining district the past summer.

THE Chicago Times-Herald said a national meeting of Methodist laymen would soon be called to lay plans to secure equal representation with the clergy in the great quadrennial legislature of the church.
